When you feel discouraged by the criticism of your efforts, remember the words of Abraham Lincoln: "If I tried to read, much less to answer, all the criticisms made of me and all the attacks leveled against me, this office would have to be closed to all other business. I do the best I know how, the very best I can, I mean to keep on doing this, down to the very end. If the end brings me out all wrong, then ten angels swearing I had been right would make no difference. If the end brings me out all right, then what is said against me now will not amount to anything."
